

Spring 2009
AS 113/213
PROJECTION BOMB
L. BECKMAN
Weds 4-7:30pm, Arts Building MStudio
Pre-reqs can be waived for students working at advanced levels.

An independent projects class, for advanced undergrads and graduate students, doing light based and/or projection projects of all sorts: animation, live action, dirt style; using light projectors, data projector, l.e.d. displays, etc. Presentation modes may be straight, eccentric, installation, or ?. Some experience with digital imaging is required, though the class will offer instruction on Flash animation, some SketchUp, Quicktime, etc. We will mount an end of quarter event with your projects.
